ARE YOU?

- Overloaded and frustrated by all the “noise” in your profession
- Overwhelmed by the increase in mental health clients reaching out to you
- Unfulfilled with your current professional toolbox
- Wanting to improve your professional status and credibility
- Wanting to grow your practice and revenue
- In need of an assessment tool to determine and address adults’ and adolescents’ sensory processing without diagnosing or labelling them
- Tired of spending hours writing reports after your sensory assessment

YOUR BENEFIT

- Be skilled in using sensory processing for adults in a transformative way
- Enable a higher success rate with your clients
- Become the practitioners of choice
- Outsmart your competitors by being innovative
- Learn how sensory processing can improve quality of life, home, work and relationships
- Expand your toolbox and service offering as a healthcare professional, coach and/or wellness practitioner
- Earn 30 CEU/CPD credits through the University of Stellenbosch

A DIFFERENT COURSE?

- Discovering your own sensory style to make the methodology personal
- Highly complex sensory processing theories will be made easy, accessible and practical
- Focus on sensory modulation and sensory regulation for adults and adolescents
- Learn to apply a “hands-off” consulting approach and not a “hands-on” therapy approach
- Blended learning with 9 self-directed- and 6 live Zoom sessions, access to more recordings, articles and information on our learning management system
- Our delegates rate this course extremely valuable and practical, exceeding their expectations
- A money-back guarantee!
